The gathering set the direction of the region by reviewing the APR Vision 2020 and identified focus areas for the next triennium.

Hon. Prime Minister D.M Jayarathna declared the Summit open and the Attorney General, Mr Palitha Fernando delivered the keynote speech. Messages were also given by Simon Hong-Bock Rhee (World Scout Committee Chairman), Dr Chao Shou-Po (Asia-Pacific Regional Chairman), Scott Teare (WOSM Secretary General), J. Rizal Pangilinan (Regional Director), Prof Nimal de Silva (Sri Lanka Scout Association Chief Commissioner), Janaprith Fernando (Sri Lanka Scout Association International Commissioner).

Discussions evolved on issues related to Global Support, Messengers of Peace, WOSM Vision 2023, APR Vision 2020, Regional Challenges, Future Direction and Governance issues. Topics such as 40th World Scout Conference matters, Youth For Change promotion, and future events were also presented.

As a break from business sessions, each day was concluded with special gatherings of ATAS and APES members and the APR Foundation Fundraising Dinner.

H.E. Mahinda Rajapaksha, President of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka, welcomed all participants at the President's House in Colombo.

The Summit concluded with the adoption of the region's strategic priorities that will anchor the direction of Scouting in the Asia-Pacific for the next three years.

Scout memorial unveiled

A stone cairn marking 100 years of Scouting in Kaiapoi South Island New Zealand was finally unveiled on Saturday, 16th May 2014.

The stone cairn marked the centenary of New Zealand's first Scout troop being registered in Kaiapoi on 16 May 1908, was created as part of the town's historical riverside walkway. However, the dedication of the monument was delayed because of the earthquakes.

Kaiapoi identity David Blackwell officially unveiled the stone cairn with assistance from Scouts from the Pegasus Bay region (Waimakariri, Hurunui and east Christchurch), Waimakariri Mayor David Ayers, Kaiapoi Anglican vicar Rev Geoff Haworth, members of the Kaiapoi Promotions Association and Scouting New Zealand upper South Island regional development manager Mike Blackburn.

Mr Blackwell says the stone cairn, completed in 2010, "has survived five major earthquakes, so it was well built". The stone cairn also marked the establishment of the first two Scout patrols at Camside, Kaiapoi, in April 1908. Mr Blackwell told Scouts at the unveiling that 14 of the first 15 Kaiapoi Scouts named on the monument went on to serve in World War I, "so there is a lot of history on this stone cairn".

Introducing Shamsa Village Orphanage in Kabul

PARSA is enthusiastic to partner with a new private orphanage in Kabul called Shamsa Village. Shamsa village is unique as it follows the "SOS" orphanage system where 12-15 children live with a "mother" in a home setting and learn to live as a family.

Staff are assigned in Shamsa Village to train social workers and the village "mothers" to help them cope with the challenge of raising kids who have lost their parents.

Invitation

10th Asia Pacific Regional Air/Internet Jamboree

Persekutuan Pengakap Malaysia will host the 10th Asia Pacific Regional Air/Internet Jamboree from 2 - 3 August 2014.

We ask National Scout Organizations to appoint a Coordinator to be the focal point for this regional event.

The Air-Internet Jamboree is a regional event established in 2004 in which Scouts can contact each other by means of amateur radio and through the Internet. Having a live conversation with a fellow Scout in some other place in the world gives the same excitement like having a normal Jamboree on the land which fosters closer relationship of Scouts worldwide.

Good Turn

Korean Venture Scout leads project to help Cambodian families

A good Scout leader once said, "If we, (leaders), give Scouts the opportunity to do good through Scouting, and if they practice it everyday, that goodness becomes part of them".

This is so true in the story of Venture Scout Kim So Hee, a Korean high school student who raised funds online to help four Cambodian families whom she met while visiting the country as part of her volunteer service. On that visit, Miss Kim realized that a small boat could be a big help for a family to earn a living.

On her return to Korea, Venture Scout Kim joined the Korea Scout Association's project called "Youth Philanthropy Program with Happy Bean". This is a newly developed youth leadership building project through fundraising.

For the next five months, Scout professional Mr Kim Kyuung Sik teamed up with Miss Kim to raise funds online. About 460 people responded to the call including Duk San High School students, Sang Rok Soo Foundation and the Happy Bean donors. Together they raised US$2,800. With this amount, Venture Scout Kim went back to Cambodia with Mr Kim Kyuung Sik and other donors to turn over four boats to the families.

Scouts partner with police to serve communities

Scouts teamed up with Afghan police to plant trees, visit patients, and clean up public places, as PARSA enters its second year partnership with the local police in Afghanistan. PARSA is mobilizing Scouts to partner with over 800 police to do community service. Today, there are more than 1,400 Scouts in 11 provinces in the country.

The best reward for this success came in Parwan province where Police Commander Ziayee, a former Scout himself, placed a Scout in his chair at the end of a service event and said "This Afghan Scout is the future of Afghanistan." -- PARSA Afghanistan
